

Without Relationships

Without someone
To share your accomplishments with
Feel your joy with
Be awed by beauty with
To smile with
Cry with Touch

Without that person
Those people
Without relationships
There is an emptiness
A void
Standing alone in a harsh world

Joy comes
With accomplishing things
But without relationships
Would anyone really notice?
Or really care?

Relationships we invest in
Whether they be family or friend
Nurture Cherish
Acknowledge our existence
Giving meaning
To our lives

Without them
Life would be Shallow
Hollow
Incomplete
